

THE NORTH CAROLINA NATIONAL ESTUARINE RESEARCH RESERVE'S COASTAL TRAINING PROGRAM PRESENTS:

Promoting Living Shorelines for Erosion Control – A Virtual Workshop for Real Estate Professionals

September 8, 2022

Virtual via Webex

Workshop Objectives – Participants will learn about:

- The benefits and limitations of using living shorelines for erosion control;
- Different shoreline stabilization techniques, including living shorelines;
- Living shoreline permitting process;
- Using marsh plants and oyster shell to prevent erosion; and
- Living shoreline projects in North Carolina.

Agenda

- 8:30am Check-in
- 9:00am Welcome and Introduction
- 9:15am Living Shorelines: Benefits and Limitations – Whitney Jenkins, N.C. Coastal Reserve
- 9:55am Break
- 10:05am Estuarine Shoreline Stabilization Design & Techniques
Tracy Skrabal, North Carolina Coastal Federation
- 10:50am Break
- 11:00am Permitting Living Shorelines – Robb Mairs, N.C. Division of Coastal Management
- 11:45am CCAP Funding for Living Shoreline Construction
Dru Harrison, New Hanover County Soil & Water Conservation District
- 12:00pm Break
- 12:10pm Best Practices for Working with Marsh Plants and Oyster Shell
Rachel Bisesi, North Carolina Coastal Federation
- 1:00pm Adjourn

North Carolina
Coastal Federation
Working Together for a Healthy Coast