Commission meeting. The Commission may suspend this rule by the affirmative vote of at least a two-thirds majority of those present and voting.

The Commission may be required to conduct studies and to provide findings and recommendations to the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee for Energy Policy, the Environmental Review Commission, or other such legislative body. In addition, the Chairman may determine the need for special studies or research to be accomplished pursuant to the Commission's roles and responsibilities. To accomplish these specialized activities, the Chairman may direct the formation of study groups comprised of Commission members and specially educated or qualified citizens who add any majority recommendation of the committee.

The Chairman of the Commission shall appoint all members of each such committee and designate the chairman of each committee. A vice-chairman for each standing committee shall be elected by the members of that committee. Members shall serve for a term corresponding to that of Officers or until their successors are chosen; therefore, a new body of committee members shall be appointed within 30 days following the first commission meeting of each calendar year. Vacancies on any Committee shall be filled by the Chairman using the procedures set forth in this Section. Committees may adopt at their discretion any internal procedures necessary to the discharge of their business; provided, no procedures adopted by any committee shall be inconsistent with these procedures or any other rules adopted by the Commission, or with any statutes applicable to the Commission. The chairman of the committee shall report on the work of the committee and shall make report on the committee's activities to the Commission during regularly scheduled meetings.

Section 1. Pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 143B-293.2(g) the Chairman may establish committees, standing or special, from members of the Commission to address specific issues as appropriate. The Chairman shall designate the chairman of each committee from among its members and shall be ex officio member of all committees except the nominating committee. A majority of duly appointed members of committees shall constitute a quorum. The chairman of each standing committee shall

The Civil Penalty Remissions Committee shall make the final agency decision for the Commission on matters involving a request for remission of the amount of civil penalties pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 143B-293.6 and Article XII of these Internal Operating Procedures. ##### Parliamentary Authority

Section 1. The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Commission in all cases to which they are applicable and not inconsistent with these procedures, and any special rules of order the Commission may adopt, or with any statutes or rules applicable to the Commission.

Section 2. In the event the Chairman excuses himself from participation in any matter due to an actual or potential conflict of interest, the Vice-Chairman shall serve as presiding officer for that matter.

ARTICLE XII.

Hearings

Section 1. The Chairman shall appoint any Commission member or members, or appropriate qualified employees of DEQ, as hearing officers for any required public hearing to receive comments on regulations or as presiding officer for any public hearing conducted under any statutes applicable to the Commission.

Section 2. In making hearing officer appointments, the Chairman shall consider the geographic location of the hearing, the technical complexity of the matter being considered, the public interest in the matter, and the necessity of having an impartial hearing officer without personal bias.

Section 6. Declaratory Rulings are governed by N.C.G.S. § 150B-4. Motions filed with the Commission by persons seeking leave to intervene in pending proceedings for declaratory rulings or seeking leave to file amicus curiae briefs shall be referred, with any response timely filed by DEQ or the Section 5. With respect to any individual quasi-judicial matter pending before the Commission, such as requests for remissions or requests for declaratory ruling, all members of the Commission and hearing officers shall refrain from directly or indirectly communicating outside of formal hearing process with any person, party or their representative, regarding issues of fact or law pertaining to the pending matter unless all parties are provided notice of the communication and given an opportunity to participate therein. This prohibition on ex parte communication also applies to the members of the Committee on Civil Penalty Remissions when exercising quasi-judicial powers. This section shall not be deemed to limit discussion of such pending matters among Commission members during an official meeting or to limit discussion among Commission members and state employees not directly involved in investigating or prosecuting the pending case.

Section 4. The appropriate time for public comment on the adoption of rules is during the comment period before the hearing officer; therefore, the Commission will refrain from allowing additional public comment during its deliberations on the proposed rules, since the matter is not then in public hearing. However, the Commission may allow limited public discussion during the agenda item for action on the rule(s) if the circumstances warrant and all positions appear to be adequately represented by those present. Additionally, the Commission provides a separate time during its standard order of business outside of Commission deliberations for public comment.

Section 3. All hearing officers appointed pursuant to this Article shall report their recommendations, along with the record of the hearing, to the full Commission for decision or action, and may move adoption thereof.

ARTICLE XV.

Pursuant to Executive Order 24 those Commission members appointed by the Governor shall attend at least seventy-five percent (75%) of all regularly scheduled meetings of the Commission during the Commission's calendar year. Failure of a Commission member appointed by the Governor to attend Commission meetings in a manner consistent with Executive Order 24 shall constitute grounds for removal from the Commission for misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 143B-13(d), N.C.G.S. § 143B-16, or other applicable statutes or regulations. The Director of DEMLR will report on the attendance of gubernatorial appointees annually, at the request of the Governor.

Regular attendance at Commission meetings is a duty of each member. Commission members recognize that, pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 143B-13(b)(vi), their position becomes vacant by their ceasing to discharge the duties of their office over a period of three consecutive meetings except when attendance is prevented by sickness.

Section 2. Members of the Commission must police themselves against actual and potential conflicts in the discharge of their statutory duties. In circumstances involving actual conflict of interest, the member must immediately discontinue any involvement in the matter including discussions of the matter with other members of the Commission or staff to the Commission. Members who disqualify themselves for actual conflict of interest must file a written statement with the Chairman of the Commission, which statement will be read into the minutes of the Commission.

Section 3. Members recusing themselves for a potential conflict of interest should make a statement, verbal or written, regarding the potential conflict, which statement will be captured in the minutes of the Commission. Unless a member of the Commission with a potential conflict of interest places it in the public record, the member must withdraw from participation in the matter. When a member withdraws from a matter due to a potential conflict of interest, no further explanation is required. Should the potential conflict of interest be disclosed in a written document, it must be read into the minutes of the Commission before deliberation or discussion of the matter begins. A member with a potential conflict of interest who decides to participate in the pending matter must disclose, in the Commission meeting when the matter is called as an agenda item the nature of the potential conflict of interest and the reason it does not cause them to withdraw from further participation in the matter.
