

2021 Albemarle and Roanoke Sound Management Area Striped Bass harvest and 2022 Total Allowable Landings

| *Total Allowable Landings (lb) | Management Area / Fisheries | #Fishery Specific TALs (lb) | TAL + 10% Buffer | Fishery Specific Landings (lb) in 2021 | Payback Amount (lb) | Fishery Specific Payback Required | Fishery Specific Overage in 2021 | % Fishery Contributed To Overage | Reduction in Fishery Specific TAL (lb) | 2022 Fishery Specific TALs |
|---------------------------------------|------------------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------|---|----------------------------|--|---|---|---|-----------------------------------|
| 51,216                         | RRMA recreational                  | 12,804                             | 14,084                  | 27,546  |                            | Yes                                      | 14,742                                  | 88%                                     | 10,733  | 2,071                             |
|                                       | ASMA recreational                  | 12,804                             | 14,084                  | 8,258   | 12,197                     | No                                       | 0                                       | 0%                                      | 0   | 12,804                            |
|                                       | ASMA commercial                    | 25,608                             | 28,169                  | 27,609  |                            | Yes                                      | 2,001                                   | 12%                                     | 1,464   | 24,144                            |
| Totals                         |                                    | 51,216                      | 56,338           | 63,413                                 |                            |  | 16,743                           |   |   | 39,019                     |

* determined through stock assessments and projections

the 1990 MOA between the MFC and WRC stipulated when the A-R stock recovered the annual allowable harvest would be allocated 50% to the commercial fishery and 50% to the recreational fisheries.