You can become an integral part in our hotel’s effort to use water more efficiently by indicating you would like to participate in our towel reuse program.

If you would prefer not to have your towels laundered today, simply hang them up, and if so, just leave them on the floor.

Thank you for working with us to make a difference!