I. Necessity:
General Statute 150B-21.3A requires state agencies to review their existing rules every 10 years to determine which rules are still necessary, and to either readopt or repeal each rule as appropriate. Eleven rules in 15A NCAC 03I, 03J, 03O, and 03P related to license and permit suspension and revocation, as well as Pound Net Set Permits, are proposed for readoption pursuant to this requirement. Additionally, proposed changes conform the rules to the requirements of G.S. 113-171 (Suspension, revocation, and reissuance of licenses) and the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), G.S. 150B, primarily G.S. 150B-2 (Definitions), G.S. 150B-3 (Special provisions on licensing), and G.S. 150B-23 (Commencement; assignment of administrative law judge; hearing required; notice; intervention). Throughout the rules, elements that merely repeat the content of law are proposed to be struck, per G.S. 150B-19. Minor technical and clarifying changes are also proposed to the rules.

II. Summary
Proposed changes seek to conform rules related to permit and license suspensions and revocations, as well as Pound Net Set Permits, to standards of the APA and to increase clarity of rules. Across all rules proposed for readoption, the majority of changes are conforming and clarifying changes that incur no impact to the state. Proposed changes with anticipated impacts provide authority to deal with rare events related to permits and licenses, provide significant context to the differences in license and permit suspensions, revocations, and requirements, provide administrative alternatives to increase overall Division of Marine Fisheries (Division) efficiency, and also propose changes to a flounder Pound Net Set Permit requirement in order to stay in compliance with the requirements of Amendment 2 to the Southern Flounder Fishery Management Plan (FMP). In all, these proposed changes provide benefits in terms of increased Division efficiency and increased protection of marine resources. However, while all of these benefits cannot be accurately quantified, the total impact is not significant to the state. No additional impacts to enforcement are anticipated.

III. Introduction and Purpose of Rule Changes
Proposed rules for readoption all relate to license and permit revocation and suspension or pound net permitting, and have been compiled into a single analysis given the similarity of rule language and context. Overall, the broad goal of proposed changes is to conform rules with the APA, as well as to increase the logic, efficiency, and clarity of rules relating to license and permit revocation and suspension.

The stated purpose of the APA is to establish "a uniform system of administrative rule making and adjudicatory procedures for agencies. The procedures ensure that the functions of rulemaking, investigation, advocacy, and adjudication are not all performed by the same person in the administrative process (G.S. 150B-1(a))." Part of the APA provides special provisions on licensing (G.S. 150B-3) and defines "license" to mean any certificate or permit of a right or privilege to engage in any activity, with certain exclusions (G.S. 150B-2(3)).

The Marine Fisheries Commission (MFC) has rules related to license, permit, and certificate suspension and revocation and one rule for requesting a review for license, permit, or certificate denial (15A NCAC 03P .0101). Proposed amendments conform these rules to the APA and other authorizing statutes. Additionally, proposed changes to 15A NCAC 03O .0504 (Suspension and Revocation of Permits) make it consistent not only with the authorizing statutes but with the similar rule for licenses (15A NCAC 03O .0114). These changes result in consistent procedures for all licensees and permittees, helping to ensure their rights under the laws as well as to protect the resource. Additional minor changes to three other related rules (15A NCAC 03I .0105, 03O .0111, .0502) and five rules for Pound Net Set Permits (15A NCAC 03J .0500) result in a more streamlined and effective process for license and permit suspension and revocation overall.

When convictions occur and lead to license or permit suspension or revocation, these process improvements will result in a consistent and timely mechanism to suspend or revoke someone's rights for protection of the resource, as well as for fairness for law-abiding stakeholders. The management of estuarine and marine resources, including:

- Fishery Management Plans (G.S. 113-182.1);
- Coastal Habitat Protection Plans (G.S. 143B-279.8);
- Cultivation of Shellfish (Chapter 113, Article 16);
- Marine Aquaculture (Chapter 113-Article 16A);
- Recent changes to provide further support to the shellfish aquaculture industry in the state (S.L. 2019-37); and
- Protection of endangered or threatened species under the Endangered Species Act, increasingly rely on the flexibility provided by permits. Proposed rule changes will help to keep pace with this flexibility. The process improvements overall will result in enhanced protection of the resource while upholding the rights of an individual licensee or permittee.

Many of the proposed changes across these rules contain clarifying or technical changes with no anticipated impact. Proposed changes with expected impacts are summarized below.

In 15A NCAC 03O .0111, new paragraph (c) is proposed to address the rare situation if the Division issues a license in error. Proposed changes establish the authority in rule for such a license to be required to be surrendered immediately upon service by an agent of the Division Director to the stakeholder to surrender the license. Existing rule 03O .0110 addresses refund of any license fees in such an instance.

Proposed changes to 15A NCAC 03O .0504 update the rule so it is reflective of all three of the situations that can result in suspension or revocation of a permit:

- New Paragraph (a) clarifies that all permits are subject to suspension and revocation. New Paragraphs (b) and (c) cover the first situation when license suspension or revocation causes permit suspension or revocation. Paragraph (b) of the current rule contains an outdated reference to a six-month waiting period before application for a new permit following license revocation.
- New Paragraph (d) covers the second situation that can result in suspension or revocation of a permit: standard permit suspension or revocation for violation of permit conditions. This Paragraph makes it unlawful to violate any permit conditions. New requirements for service and reinstatement of permits, consistent with similar requirements for licenses in related rules are also proposed.
- New Paragraph (g) covers the third and final situation that can result in suspension or revocation of a permit: summary suspension, which is a rare event. Amendments to Paragraph (h) and new Paragraph (i) clarify requirements for surrender of a permit that has been suspended, revoked, or issued in error by the Division. New Paragraph (j) states it shall be unlawful to evade the service prescribed in this rule, consistent with the rule for license suspension and revocation. Finally, new Paragraph (k) covers the requirements of the permittee set out in G.S. 113-202 for the removal of all gear upon revocation or denial of a permit, as well as termination of a shellfish lease.

In 15A NCAC 03P .0101, proposed changes conform the rule to the requirements of the APA and G.S. 113-171 for license suspension and revocation. Proposed changes separate license requirements from permit requirements and clarify that a permit includes a certification and a certificate of compliance, again consistent with the APA. Proposed changes to Paragraph (d) add the ability for a statement to be sent to the Division by electronic mail, not just via U.S. mail. Subsequent changes shorten the time period from 15 days to 10 days to reflect the flexibility electronic mail provides and to ensure timely protection of the resources under the authority of the MFC. For the protection of endangered or threatened species or a species managed by a quota, the time period is further shortened to five days, consistent with the severity of a possible violation leading to permit or license suspension or revocation.

Lastly, 15A NCAC 03J .0501 proposes changes to pound net permit uses based on recent developments in the Southern Flounder Fishery Management Plan in terms of shortened seasons and related management measures. Paragraph (b) of this rule currently requires a pound net used in a commercial fishing operation to be operational for a minimum of 30 consecutive days during the Pound Net Set Permit period. Since the adoption of Amendment 2, the commercial flounder seasons have been less than 30 days, creating a situation where it is not possible for a flounder pound net permittee to comply with the 30-day set requirement. Proposed changes delegate specific proclamation authority to the Division Director to waive this requirement when either a quota is met or for compliance with the N.C. Southern Flounder FMP, allowing the Division Director to address a flounder pound net set that cannot be set for the minimum period due to this FMP. The proposed changes would codify what has been handled by a policy exception since the adoption of Amendment 2 and provide a pathway for management in the future under Amendment 3 when quotas are expected to be implemented. This adds clarity to the rule for stakeholders and enforcement.

IV. Fiscal Impact Analysis

As proposed rule changes seek to conform with APA requirements and increase logic and efficiency of license and permit revocation and suspension processes, the overall thrust of impact to the state is a flow of non-quantifiable benefits related to increased efficiency and resource protection.

Proposed protocols to surrender licenses issued in error as part of 15A NCAC 03O .0111 should yield small benefits to the state in the form of increased efficiency and the elimination of risk from stakeholders using an erroneous license. As mentioned, this is a rare instance, and the benefit should not be considered significant.
In 15A NCAC 03O .0504, a series of proposed changes seeks to add clarity and context to the three unique situations that can result in suspension or revocation of a permit. While these proposed changes will not impact requirements or processes for permit revocations and suspensions, they will add significant clarity to Division staff and stakeholders on these conditions. This improved clarity will yield time savings to the state, though the overall benefit should not be significant.

Proposed changes to 15A NCAC 03P .0101 also yields similar time-cost benefits to the state due to clarifications between license and permit requirements, aiding in administration for the Division and its stakeholders. However, other proposed changes in the rule should yield other benefits as well. Firstly, proposed changes to allow stakeholders to email statements demonstrating compliance with license or permit requirements directly to the Division, as opposed to using U.S. mail, both reduces physical costs to stakeholders and the state and also increases overall efficiency, generating additional benefits. Additionally, the time window to submit statements of compliance is proposed to be shortened from 15 days to 10 days, and then to five days for permits or licenses related to protected species or quotas. Not only will these shortened timelines yield a benefit to the state from increased efficiency, they will also generate increased protections for marine resources in the state, especially those with a protected status. As this timeline shift yields just five or 10 additional days, this protection benefit is not expected to be significant. Additionally, the total benefit from proposed changes to 15A NCAC 03P .0101 is not significant as well.

Lastly, the proposed changes to 15A NCAC 03J .0501 yields insignificant benefits to the state. Overall, the proposed rule grants narrow proclamation authority for the Division Director to waive the 30-day pound net set requirements for the southern flounder fishery that has seasons that are less than 30 days in length. In terms of benefits, not only will this improve biological outcomes for the state’s southern flounder fishery, but it also helps uphold the requirements of Amendment 2 to the Southern Flounder FMP, leading to administrative benefits for Division staff in the future. While the benefits mentioned from this proposed change cannot be accurately quantified at this time, the total combination of these impacts is not significant. Finally, no additional costs to enforcement are expected across all proposed changes.
