

SUMMARY OF NOTICE OF INTENT TO REDEVELOP A BROWNFIELDS PROPERTY
Brownfields Property Name: Chapel Hill Police Property
Brownfields Project Number: 23022-19-068

Pursuant to the North Carolina Brownfields Property Reuse Act (the “Act”) authorized by North Carolina General Statutes (NCGS) § 130A-310.30 through 130A-310.40, and specifically pursuant to NCGS § 130A-310.34, the Town of Chapel Hill, as Prospective Developer, has filed with the North Carolina Department of Environmental Quality (“DEQ”) a Notice of Intent to Redevelop a Brownfields Property (“Brownfields Property”) located at 828 Martin Luther King Jr Boulevard, Chapel Hill, Orange County, North Carolina. The Brownfields Property, which is the current site of the Chapel Hill Police Station, consists of approximately 10.24 acres. Environmental contamination exists on the Brownfields Property in groundwater, soil, exterior soil gas, and surface water, and in structural fill containing coal combustion product. The Town of Chapel Hill has committed itself to redevelop the Brownfields Property for no uses other than for a municipal service center, office, retail, recreational, associated parking, and transit uses, and with prior written approval from DEQ, other commercial uses. The Notice of Intent to Redevelop a Brownfields Property includes: (1) a proposed Brownfields Agreement between DEQ and the Town of Chapel Hill, which in turn includes (a) a map showing the location of the Property, (b) a description of the contaminants involved and their concentrations in the media of the Property, (c) the above-stated description of the intended future use of the Brownfields Property, and (d) proposed investigation and remediation; and (2) a proposed Notice of Brownfields Property prepared in accordance with NCGS § 130A-310.35.

The full Notice of Intent to Redevelop a Brownfields Property may be reviewed at the Chapel Hill Public Library, 100 Library Drive, Chapel Hill, NC 27514 by contacting Sarah Wagner at (919) 969-2022 ext. 2022, at swagner@townofchapelhill.org, or at the General Circulation Desk; or at the offices of the N.C. The Act requires a public comment period of at least 30 days. The first day of public comment is defined as the day after which all of the following public notice tasks have occurred: the date this Notice is: (1) published in a newspaper of general circulation serving the area in which the Brownfields Property is located; (2) conspicuously posted at the Brownfields Property; and (3) mailed or delivered to each owner of property contiguous to the Brownfields Property. Written public comments may be submitted to DEQ within 30 days after the public comment period begins. Written requests for a public meeting may be submitted to DEQ within 21 days after the public comment period begins. These periods will start no sooner than July 1, 2024, and will end no later of: 1) 30 and 21 days, respectively, after that; or 2) 30 and 21 days, respectively, after completion of the latest of the three (3) above-referenced tasks, if such completion occurs later than the date stated herein. All public comments and public meeting requests should be addressed as follows:
